Core Story Frame

Spanish:

Una familia llega a casa cansada. Nadie quiere hablar primero. Hay platos en la mesa, mensajes sin responder, y un silencio que pesa. Entonces alguien lee Apocalipsis 3:20: Jesús está a la puerta y llama. No llega para humillar. Llega para entrar, sanar, enseñar la verdad y guiar un paso de amor por medio del Espíritu Santo.

English:

A family comes home tired. No one wants to speak first. Dishes sit on the table, messages stay unanswered, and the room feels heavy. Then someone reads Revelation 3:20: Jesus stands at the door and knocks. He does not come to humiliate. He comes to enter, heal, teach truth, and guide one step of love through the Holy Spirit.

Facebook Primary Post

Spanish:

Y si Jesús ya está llamando a la parte de tu vida que has tenido miedo de abrir?

Esta semana en Lily & Schammy Ministry estamos hablando de una verdad sencilla y poderosa: Jesús no espera a que la casa esté perfecta para acercarse. En Lucas 19:1-10, Él entra en la casa de Zaqueo y la gracia cambia la historia. En Apocalipsis 3:20, Jesús llama, habla y espera una respuesta real.

Prueba la práctica P.U.E.R.T.A. hoy:

1. Presenta la verdad a Jesús.
2. Usa la Escritura antes de responder con miedo.
3. Entrega una habitación de tu vida a Cristo.
4. Recibe la guía del Espíritu Santo.
5. Toma un paso práctico de amor.

Para niños: dibuja una puerta y escribe una cosa que puedes decirle a Jesús.

Para adolescentes: entrega a Cristo una presión que has escondido.

Para jóvenes adultos: deja que la Biblia tenga la primera palabra en una decisión.

Para adultos: abre un espacio de oración, confesión, perdón o servicio en tu hogar.

English:

What if Jesus is already knocking on the part of your life you have been afraid to open?

This week at Lily & Schammy Ministry, we are sharing one simple and powerful truth:

Jesus does not wait for the house to look perfect before He comes close. In Luke 19:1-10, He enters Zacchaeus' home and grace changes the story. In Revelation 3:20, Jesus knocks, speaks, and waits for a real response.

Try the D.O.O.R. practice today:

1. Drop the mask and tell Jesus the truth.
2. Open Scripture before fear answers for you.
3. Offer one room of your life to Christ.
4. Receive the guidance of the Holy Spirit.
5. Respond with one practical act of love.

For kids: draw a door and write one thing you can tell Jesus.

For teens: bring one hidden pressure to Christ.

For young adults: let the Bible have the first word in one decision.

For adults: open one space of prayer, confession, forgiveness, or service in your home.

YouTube Community Post - TheJalicrew

Spanish:

Familias, esta noche hagan algo sencillo: pongan una Biblia abierta en la mesa, lean Apocalipsis 3:20, y pregunten: "Que puerta de nuestra vida queremos abrirle a Jesus esta semana?"

No tiene que ser largo. Puede ser una oracion de 60 segundos, una disculpa, una decision mas sabia, o un mensaje de amor a alguien que lo necesita.

Recurso familiar: <https://lily-schammy-ministry.vercel.app/ministry>

English:

Families, try something simple tonight: place an open Bible on the table, read Revelation 3:20, and ask, "What door of our life do we want to open to Jesus this week?"

It does not have to be long. It can be a 60-second prayer, an apology, a wiser decision, or a loving message to someone who needs it.

Spanish:

La fe no comienza con fingir. Comienza con abrir.

Jesus se acerco a Zaqueo por nombre. No aprobo el pecado, pero tampoco abandono al pecador. Lo llamo a una nueva vida. Ese mismo Jesus todavia llama con verdad, gracia y poder transformador.

Lee Lucas 19:1-10. Ora: "Senor Jesus, entra en esta parte de mi vida. Espiritu Santo, guíame a un paso de obediencia."

English:

Faith does not begin with pretending. It begins with opening.

Jesus came close to Zacchaeus by name. He did not approve sin, but He did not abandon the sinner. He called him into a new life. That same Jesus still calls with truth, grace, and transforming power.

Read Luke 19:1-10. Pray: "Lord Jesus, enter this part of my life. Holy Spirit, guide me into one obedient step."
